

July 2019

Dear Parent/Carer

Pastoral Changes for 2019-20

At The Hamble School, we strongly believe that the role of the tutor is very significant and important in the lives of our students and their parents. Wherever possible, we aim to keep tutors and tutor groups together as they progress through the school. We encourage you to make contact with your child's tutor and to maintain communication through email and telephone wherever necessary. Whenever you have an issue or require advice, your child's tutor serves as your link to the school and should be your first port of call.

As with any school, there are some staffing changes at this time of year which will have an impact on both the tutor teams and Heads of Year for the following year. These changes are a result of some staff leaving us, new staff joining us, changes to roles and responsibilities, and to accommodate part time staff.

The changes to the affected groups are shown below. Tutor groups that are not listed are not affected and, barring any circumstances that are unforeseeable at this time, should remain with the same tutor next year.
