Dear Parent/Carer

I am writing to inform you that I will be leaving at the end of next term to become Headteacher at a school in West Sussex in January 2023.

It has not been an easy decision to make. I have thoroughly enjoyed being Headteacher at The Hamble School for the last four years. It is a very special school because of the students, staff and the local community. I will always be grateful for the support that I have received from all of you, especially during the pandemic.

The governors will be working closely with the Local Authority to appoint a replacement, and I am sure that there will be a lot of interest to lead this school. The governors will keep you informed next term, when they are in a position to do so.

In the meantime, there is a lot of work to do over the next five and a half months. I will write a Headteacher blog later in the week to keep you up-to-date regarding all of the events of the past few weeks, as well as the extensive projects taking place over the holidays to make The Hamble School a better place for our community.

Yours faithfully

Mr A Govan
Headteacher
