Dear Parents/Carers,

GCSE Literature

Your son or daughter will be starting the study of their GCSE Literature set texts in September. These texts are: 'Romeo and Juliet' by William Shakespeare, 'A Christmas Carol' by Charles Dickens and 'An Inspector Calls' by J.B Priestley. I would like to strongly encourage you to purchase these texts in order to support your child with the 9-1 GCSE English Literature course that they will be studying over the next 3 years.

Where the demands of the GCSE have changed, students have found it hugely beneficial to have access to their own copies of the novel and plays, which they have been able to annotate with appropriate notes to aid revision and understanding.

We have selected editions of the texts that are appropriate and are able to supply them for a reduced cost compared to online prices and those in bookshops.

Please could you indicate which set texts you would like to purchase and pay for them via SCOPAY by midday, Monday 4th July 2022. Once payment has been received the books will be ordered. No orders will be accepted after the deadline. If you require a link code to your child's SCOPAY account please e mail, finance@thehambleschool.co.uk

If you have any questions, or are not able to purchase these books because of financial difficulty please contact me directly on rloveridge@thehambleschool.co.uk

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully

Ruth Loveridge
Head of English

If, at any time, you should require special arrangements to be made when visiting the school and/or in order to participate fully in supporting your child at school (e.g. an accessible venue for meetings, if you are a wheelchair user, assistance with translation of documents or enlarged copies of communications etc.), please do not hesitate to let us know.
