

Music Video Analysis- Take Me to Church, Hozier

Year 9 is all about learning the skills the students will need for their coursework assignments. From trailer analysis to actual film making.

The opening shot to the music video Take Me to Church is of a bonfire it is done in black and white giving an eerie effect and it gives the impression of night time. It is a wide shot which is often used as an establishing shot and in this video is definitely used for that purpose. This video has no introduction and starts straight away with the lyrics. This immediately catches the audience's attention and engages them.

The next shot is of a male riding a bike up a long path this is a long shot. The music to this part of the video is very low in pitch and talks of death which leaves the audience feeling thinking about the bonfire from the previous shot and wondering what is to come.

YEAR 10

Year 10. Unit 2 assignments and preparation for Unit 4 projects.

In year 10 the students begin work on the 4 units required for their dual GCSE. The students always begin with Unit 2 which consists of 3 assignments. There exists a bank of subjects for these assignments from the exam board which allow the teacher to change the topic and focus each year. For example the current year 10 have just completed their 3 assignments

YEAR 11

In year 11 the students begin work properly on their unit 4 portfolios. They are given 4 months to research the topic and then design a campaign based on the given subject. This year's topic is all about charity work. Then they return to their 3 assignments so that they have a chance to improve them.
